

Case in and across languages: program

27.8.2009

8.00–9.00 Registration (registration is possible later as well)

9.00–9.15 Welcome/opening words (Room 104)

9.15–10.15 First plenary talk (Room 104)

Tuomas Huumo: What counts as directionality? – Dynamic conceptualization and the uses of Finnish directional local cases

10.15–10.30 Break

10.30–11.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 104) Chair: Peter de Swart	Section 2 (Room 505) Chair: Casper de Groot
Katja Västi: Semantics of initial allative in verbless clauses in Finnish	Merilin Miljan: Grammatical cases are actually semantic
Silvia Luraghi: Cases as radial categories: the limits of polysemy	Nerea Madariaga: Change in the status of case: from grammatical to even more grammatical

11.30–12.45 Lunch break

12.45–14.15 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 104) Chair: Denis Creissels	Section 2 (Room 505) Chair: Giorgio Iemmolo
Masahiko Nose: Choices of cases or prepositions/postpositions for several locative meanings: a typological study	Merja Salo: Cases in Northern Khanty dialects
Jane Klavan: Synonymy in Grammar: Estonian Locative Case and Adpositional Constructions	Åshild Naess: The not-quite-case system of Vaeakau-Taumako: Animacy, salience and role distinguishability in a Polynesian Outlier language
Sirkka Saarinen: Case endings in Mari and Mordvin postpositions	Jouni Rostila: A Construction Grammar

Approach to Argument Licensing in German

14.15–14.45 Coffee break (fifth floor)

14.45–16.15 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 104) Chair: Seppo Kittilä	Section 2 (Room 505) Chair: Sander Lestrade
Stefanie Fauconnier: Agent marking and animacy	Tommi Nieminen: Double-casing in contemporary Finnish
Tobias Weber: Volitionality alternations expressed through differential case marking	Jun'ichi Sakuma: The double nominative marking in the Finnish language
Ralf Vollmann: Optional ergative case marking in Tibetan	John Lumsden: On the lexical representation of fusional inflection

16.15–16.30 Break

16.30–17.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 104) Chair: Erika Sandman	Section 2 (Room 505) Chair: Jussi Ylikoski
Bettina Zeisler: Semantically based case marking in Ladakhi and the transitivity hierarchy	Elena Markus and Fedor Rozhanskiy: Comitative and Terminative in Votic and Lower Luga Ingrian
Pekka Posio: Transitivity effects on subject marking in Spanish	Maija Sirola: Comitative in Finnish language

18.00– Reception by The University of Helsinki: hosted by vice rector Markku Löytönen (main building (Unioninkatu 34), teacher's lounge and foyer)

28.8.2009

9.00–10.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Pekka Posio	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Bernard Comrie	Section 3 (Room 104)
---	--	-----------------------------

Merlijn de Smit: Systems in motion: subject and object case-marking in Old Finnish and Sweden Finnish Casper de Groot: Reconsidering the Hungarian Case System Uri Tadmor: The rise and fall of case marking in Malay-Indonesian pronouns	Saartje Verbeke: Case in Kashmiri Thomas Wier: 'Morphosemantax' and the system of Case-assignment in Georgian Michael Cysouw &amp; Diana Forker: Reconstruction of morphosyntactic function: Non-spatial usage of spatial case marking in Tsezic	Workshop: Differential Object Marking: Theoretical and empirical issues (organized by Giorgio Iemmolo) Peter de Swart: Differential object marking: unity or diversity? Seppo Kittilä: Formal and functional differences between DOM and DRM. Kaius Sinnemäki: Differential argument marking- a crosslinguistic study of areality.
---	--	--

10.30–10.45 Break

10.45–11.45 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Matti Miestamo	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Leena Kolehmainen	Section 3 (Room 104)
Anne Tamm: Cross-categorial abessive in Estonian Arja Hamari: The abessive case of the Uralic languages	Maria Frick: Case usage in Finnish-Estonian code-switching Helena Halmari: The case for the abstract case: Evidence from bilingual code-switching	Workshop (Iemmolo) Gerson Klumpp: Differentially marked topical objects in Komi. Mathias Jenny: Differential object marking in Burmese.

11.45–13.00 Lunch break

13.00–14.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Laura Janda	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Silvia Luraghi	Section 3 (Room 104)
Erika Sandman: The Numeral Two as a Comitative/Instrumental Case Marker in Wutun Language: A Case of Areal	Peter Arkadiev: Towards a typology of case in head-marking languages Corinna Handschuh: Marked-	Workshop (Iemmolo) Eleanor Coghill: Differential object marking in Neo-Aramaic.

Grammaticalization in Amdo Sprachbund Maria Smolina: On recently grammaticalized case morphemes in Urum language Kan Sasaki &amp; Daniela Caluianu: The rise of a semantically unrestricted oblique case in the Mitsukaido dialect of Japanese	S case systems Michael Daniel: Vocative: paradigmization of address	Agnes Korn: Differential object marking in Balochi and beyond Daniel Riaño: Differential Object Marking in Ancient Greek
---	--	--

14.30–15.00 Coffee break (fifth floor)

15.00–16.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Aki Kyröläinen	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Helena Halmari	Section 3 (Room 104)
Farrell Ackerman &amp; John Moore: Proto-properties and Obliqueness Dolgor Guntsetseg, Klaus von Heusinger and Udo Klein: The case of accusative embedded subjects in Mongolian Michael Crombach: Zipf, Kandel and Case	Angela Bartens &amp; Enrique Lucena Torres: The Finnish translative and its equivalents in Spanish, French, and Italian – a case study of Kari Hotakainen's Juoksuhaudantie and its translations Leena Kolehmainen: Rise and development of adpositional objects in a translation-induced language contact situation Adri Breed: Creole languages as reflections of the prototypes of their European sister languages – case in Afrikaans.	Workshop (Iemmolo) Susanna Virtanen: Differential object marking in Eastern Mansi. Elisabeth Stark &amp; Kathrin Anne Neuburger: Why differential object marking in Corsican? 16.00-16.30: Closing words

16.45–17.45 Second plenary talk (Room 104)

Laura Janda: Meaning of cases, cases of meaning

19.00– Conference Dinner at Restaurant Mustikka
(Mustikkamaankuja 1, www. musitikka.fi)

29.8.2009

9.00–10.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Jack Rueter	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Anne Tamm	Section 3 (Room 104)
Helena Metslang: Changes in the use of partitive subjects in Estonian	Helen de Hoop and Sander Lestrade: Case and Tense	Workshop: Non-Locative Functions of Spatial Forms in East Caucasian (organized by Michael Daniel and Dmitri Ganenkov)
Renate Pajusalu: The Elative Case and Negation: evidence from Estonian	Ekaterina Gruzdeva: Coding of the subject in dependent clauses	Gilles Authier: Grammaticalization of dependent-marked inalienability split from inessive and adessive cases
Svetlana Edygarova: Cases and attributive possession in Permic languages	Liina Lindström &amp; Ilona Tragel: Agent marking in Estonian participial constructions	Natalia Bogomolova and Solmaz Merdanova: Non-locative uses of locative cases in East Lezgie (Lezgian, Agul, Tabasaran)

10.30–10.45 Break

10.45–11.45 Third plenary talk (Room 104)

Peter Austin: Issues in the synchrony and diachrony of case marking in the Mantharta and Kanyara languages, Australia

11.45–13.00 Lunch break

13.00–14.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Ulla Vanhatalo	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Jouni Rostila	Section 3 (Room 104)
Sanna Mustonen: Local Case Phrases in L2 Finnish	Anton Granvik: Spanish DE and the genitive	Workshop: Non-Locative Functions of Spatial Forms in East Caucasian (organized by Michael Daniel and Dmitri Ganenkov)
Tuija Määttä: Corpus-based Analysis of how Swedish-speaking students learning Finnish use the local cases in text production	Simone Ueberwasser: A Requiem for the German Genitive?	Dmitry Ganenkov: Non-locative uses of locative cases in Dargwa
Elena Perekhvalskaya: Spatial cases in Udihe	Chrysanthie Therapontos: Genitive complements of two-place verbs and the structural case hypothesis in Modern Greek	Denis Creissels: Non-locative uses of locative cases in Northern Akhvakh
		Michael Daniel: Non-locative uses of locative cases in Archi

14.30–15.00 Coffee break (fifth floor)

15.00–16.30 Section papers

Section 1 (Room 505) Chair: Fernando Zúñiga	Section 2 (Room 404) Chair: Arja Hamari	Section 3 (Room 104)
Lyih-Peir Luo: A contrastive study of dativus commodi et incommodi in German and Chinese	Jack Rueter: Case in Erzya: A synthesis of morphology, semantics, syntactic function, and compatibility with number, person and definiteness	Workshop: Non-Locative Functions of Spatial Forms in East Caucasian (organized by Michael Daniel and Dmitri Ganenkov)
Beatriz Fernández &amp; Jon Ortíz de Urbina: Core and peripheral datives: Dative agreement drop in Basque	Alexandru Mardale: On some morpho-syntax correlations in the Romanian case system	Diana Forker: Non-local uses of local cases in Hinuq
Sander Lestrade, Kees de Schepper, Joost Zwarts: The PCaseBase	Heli Pekkarinen: From purposive to modal (and future): ongoing change in meaning of the translative present passive participle in Finnish	Bernard Comrie: Non-locative functions of spatial cases in Tsez
		Zaira Khalilova: Non-local uses of local cases in Khwarshi

16.30–16.45      Break

16.45–17.15 Workshop: Non-Locative Functions of Spatial Forms in East

Caucasian (Room 104): Dmitry Ganenkov and Michael Daniel: Non-locative uses of locative cases in East Caucasian: Overview and concluding remarks

17.20–17.30      Closing words (Room 104)